

NOW FORMING:

ROYAL SCHOOL OF CHURCH MUSIC CHILDREN'S CHORUS & MUSIC FUNDAMENTALS PROGRAM

Sponsored by the Episcopal Church of the Holy Faith, based on THE ROYAL SCHOOL OF CHURCH MUSIC'S

VOICE for LIFE
MUSIC EDUCATION PROGRAM

THIS MUSIC PROGRAM IS DESIGNED FOR THE ENJOYMENT AND ENRICHMENT OF OUR WHOLE COMMUNITY. EVERYONE IS WELCOME!
OTHER CHURCHES & ORGANIZATIONS ARE ENCOURAGED TO PARTICIPATE.

Consisting of a Children's Chorus ensemble, music methods classes, and frequent performances, the program is based on the Royal School of Church Music's "Voice for Life" curriculum, and has been specially adapted for children ages 6-14.

The Royal School of Church Music has established a fun and effective method to help singers of all ages develop their vocal skills and their understanding of music. The Royal School exists to support and promote singing in churches, schools and throughout the community.

CHILDREN'S CHORUS & MUSIC FUNDAMENTALS PROGRAM:

The Royal School of Church Music Children's Chorus will rehearse twice weekly, and perform regularly, including presentations for cooperating churches and organizations. Repertoire has been carefully selected to develop and enhance children's abilities.

Academic studies are integral to the program, and each week a simple music methods class will emphasize basic choral singing skills, music fundamentals, repertoire, and music history.

The Children's Chorus and Voice for Life program are open to children of all faiths and creeds. Emphasis is placed on training the in the Christian musical tradition, but the program also includes multi-cultural music and integrates teaching methods from Orff and Kodaly.

The Children's Chorus will be directed by Monika Cosson-Sheppard, an accomplished classical singer with an extensive background in choral work and children's choirs.
